The first step in the application process is to arrange for a personal interview with the Rosh Yeshiva, Rav, or Rosh Kollel. Before being granted an interview, applicants are carefully screened by contacting previous instructors and/or Rosh Yeshivas. If it is determined that the student is a good candidate for admission to the Yeshiva, he will be interviewed and tested.

At the time of the interview, a member of the faculty will administer a thorough examination in Talmudic studies. The yeshiva will also request transcripts of previous advanced study in other institutions and recommendations from faculty members at previous schools of attendance.

The selection of applicants will be based upon intellectual ability, academic preparation, and personal ethical development. If accepted for enrollment, the applicant will then be asked to complete an admission form.

Admission to Bais Medrash of Dexter Park is open to male members of the Orthodox Jewish faith without regard to color, race, national origin, or handicap.
