

VACCINATIONS POLICY

New York state law requires that all students attending post-secondary institutions in New York show written proof of immunization for measles, mumps, and rubella and meningococcal meningitis vaccination response. This law requires all students born after 1956 who are matriculated in a degree program to provide the institution with a record of immunization; or evidence of immunity by history of disease or serological evidence.